BREAK NOW NOT LIKELY

All the Trouble Diminished By Carranza's Aquiescence

WAR MAY BE AVERTED

Generally Admitted That Issues Between the United States and Mexico Can be Arbitrated

El Paso, June 29—A special train from Chihuahua City, bearing the twenty-four released American soldiers is expected to reach Juarez some time this morning. The train left the state capital at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Upon arriving at Juarez, the Americans will be placed aboard a street car bound for El Paso without delay and sent across the Rio Grande. They will be greeted at the American end of the bridge by American officers anxious to obtain detailed accounts of what occurred at Carrizal to supplement the incomplete report of Captain Morey, already forwarded to the War Department.

Mexico City, June 29—General Carranza's reply to the American note threatening "grave consequences" if the American forces are attacked and reciting alleged Mexican outrages, will allege that several of President Wilson's statements are based on unauthenticated rumors, it was learned here today.

The repily itself has not been completed. But General Carranza himself indicated something of its character in an address to a group of students last night.

"The American note, purporting to be an answer to the Mexican note, is in reality not an answer at all, but a series of charges," he said. "A reply is being prepared, rectifying these statements. The American note and the reply will be given to the public here as soon as possible."

Referring later on in his address to the possibilities of armed conflict General Carranza said:

"Mexico is the guardian of this race. We must defend not only the soveheignty of this country, but of all Latin American countries."

The first copies of American newspapers with the text of the American note were received here late yesterday. They aroused intense interest.

The Carrizal incident will not become cause for war between Mexico and the U nited States, the United Press has been authoritatively informed.

No official announcement has been made regarding President Wilson's demands for the release of the American prisoners.

It was stated, however, that the matter undoubtedly would be settled amicably and a precedent established for friendly settlements in future occurrence of the same kind.

Washington, June 29—An immediate break between the United States and the de facto Government of Mexico has been averted by compliance with the American demand for release of the 23 troopers captured in the fight at Carrizal.

Whether a state of war has been prevented or merely postponed no one here will attempt to say. Official information as to the attitude of General Carranza was lacking.

Secretary Lansing has not studied the trio of communications submitted to the department within the last 24 hours by Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designated. They protest against the alleged actions of a large column of General Pershing's men toward Mexican citizens, against the arrest of other Mexicans in the United States and against the general embargo, effected without proclamation, stopping virtually all shipments to Mexico.

The protests are being treated as routine matter in the State Department. Two of them, relating to alleged improper treatment of Mexican citizens, require reports either from army officers or from Federal civil authorities in Califronia and Arizona before any answer can be made.

The protest dealing with the embargo situation probably could be quickly disposed of. In its note last Sunday the Washington Government informed General Carranza that it construed as deliberately hostile his orders to General Trevino to limit, by force, the operations of General Pershing's men. A formal repudiation of this attitude has been required of the de facto Government. If any reply were made to Mr. Arredondo pending the receipt of some reply to that demand, undoubtedly it would be pointed out that the United States Government is not disposed to furnish supplies to a potential enemy.

Mr. Arredondo said last night he would call attention of the State Department to a report just received from the Mexican Consul at El Paso that a Mexicon boy, accompanied by father on a train bound from Douglas Ariz., to El Paso, had been beaten into insensibility by two American soldiers and two civilians who boarded the train at Hachita, N. M., The Consul reported the boy had a toy pistol, which excited suspicion. The Ambassador also let it be known that he had asked his Government for information concerning a report that American troops had crossed the border pursuing bandits near Hachita yesterday.

There was a dearth of border advices at the War Department yesterday. Nothing was received relating to any incident in Mexico which might be the basis for charges contained in Mr. Arredondo's note that American troops had mistreated a large number of Mexican citizens. The note will be submitted to General Funston so that a report from General Pershing may be obtained.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Capt. James William Green, postmaster of Culpeper, has been ordered to the border as commander of the Culpeper Minute Men. The Minute Men are part of the Second Virginia Regiment.

Rev. John W. May, Methodist preacher, of Blackwood, known in that section of the state as "the fighting parson of Roaring Fork," has tendered his sword to the governor.

Michael Moore was run down and killed at White's crossing, a short distance west of Lynchburg, by a Norfolk and Western train late Tuesday.

Paid church organists may ply their trade Sundays. So ruled Police Justice Truthfield, in Richmond, yesterday in dismissing complaint against Ernest H. Cosby, organist at All Saints' Protestant Episcopal Church.

Rev. Travis James Taylor, a retired minister of the Virginia Methodist Conference, former pastor of Laurel Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Richmond, died at the home of his daughter Mrs. R. R. Carter, near Blackstone, yesterday.

After a career of little more than two years the Vice Commission of Richmond was dissolved yesterday by Mayor Ainslie. The Mayor is vested with ample authority to again name a similar body, but has indicated no intention of doing so.

The library annex of the residence of Representative James Hay, at Madison was wrecked on Saturday, when a large tree in the lawn was blown over during a storm. The tree stood only a few feet away from the home and the trunk crashed through the roof and exposed Mr. Hay's valuable books and papers to a drenching rain.

Within easy call of hundreds of bathers and in sight of large crowds of Richmond excursionists, J. W. Engel, believed to be from Rochester or Syracuse, N. Y., met his death in the surf at Virginia Beach early yesterday afternoon. A strong tide and swift undercurrent had carried him far down the beach when he attempted to swim from the shore to the surf boat anchored just beyond the danger line.

OVER 2,000 ARE MUSTERED IN

Virginia Recruits Stand Rigid Physical Examination

NEED NEW RECRUITS

Adjutant General Sends Telegraphic Appeal For Increased Activity at Various Stations

Richmond, June 29—When reveille blared forth in Camp Henry Carter Stuart this morning 2,000 men awakened to find themselves mustered into the service of the United States and under orders of the President to go anywhere in the world that they may be needed.

All through the day, from mess call until long after taps, the army surgeons proceeded rapidly with their work. Men already enlisted in the militia and raw recruits, rushed from shower bath to the surgeon's tented office there to learn whether they were fit to fight beneath the flag, which floats in front of brigade headquarters. Orders had come from Washington to go ahead with examination and mustering in with the utmost haste, so that the War Department might know how many Federalized military organizations could be sent to the border and be depended upon for active duty.

No additional orders have been received from Washington, but Adjutant General Sale will be ready by tomorrow morning to move his troops Trains on every railroad entering Richmond are in readiness for the transportation. The entire body in the camp could be moved at once if it were properly equipped. Supplies are needed. Recruits who have been accepted are still parading the ground in civilian dress and unarmed. They may not be sent away until they are equipped for the field.

Recruiting officers are still being hampered by mothers. One traveled from Staunton to ask that her son be released, and wept upon the commanding officer's shoulder when she was informed that he had been mustered in. Other mothers have asked Adjutant-General Sale and the Governor that their sons be discharged from the service. But war's grim necessity can pay no heed to a mother's tears or to a wife's request. The women should try to help by withdrawing their appeals and by urging their sons to answer the President's call.

Every effort is being made to keep the men happy and serene. By the Governor's order Kessnich's Band will play in the grand stand every afternoon, from 4 to 6:30 o'clock. The Second Regiment has its own enlisted band on the grounds, and the band of the First Regiment will come in today.

With the commands of the First and Second Regiments reduced by more than 20 per cent of their original effectives, Adjutant-General W. W. Sale, General C. C. Vaughan, Colonel Jo Lane Stern and brigade staff officers bent every effort to urge enlistment of men physically fit for duty in the eld. More than 2,000 men have been examined and mustered in, but the State muster roll should number 3,600.

The Adjutant-General telegraphed to all recruiting officers in the State to hurry their work, and recruiting offices were established in every company stationed at Camp Henry Carter Stuart. The Governor has been informed by the War Department that the cases of men and officers who have been rejected on account of minor defects will be taken up individually by the War Department itself. Exclusion of certain men known be expert militiamen and to be good shots will be urged by the Governor and the Adjutant-General.

TO OUR BOYS

(By an Admirer of Co , G)

Here's to the boys of Company G.
All of whom we can readily see,
Left home, and mother, friends and all,
To fight for their country and their native soil.

Here's to the boys of Company G,
Even though few their number be,
They bravely went, one and all,
To face all dangers and answer their call.

Here's to the boys of Company G.
All willing to fight for their country,
Oh, may dear old Virginia, the home of the warriors of old,
Have cause to be proud of her young heroes so bold.

Here's to the boys of Company G.
Sons of the good old land of the free.
Oh, may their dear hearts be strong and true,
Fighting bravely for the Red, White and Blue.

God bless our boys of Company G.
Bless them all we pray to Thee,
And grant our homes may be soon filled with joys,
Welcoming back our hero boys.

CASEMENT TO HANG

Sir Roger Sentenced to Death Immediately After Being Convicted of Treason

London, June 29—Sir Roger Casement this afternoon was found guilty of high treason in connection with the Irish rebellio and his attempts to induce Irish prisoners in Germany to desert the British colors. The jury deliberated less than an hour.

The death sentence was pronounced after Casement, in a scarcely audible voice, had addressed the court briefly.

CANNON IS EMPHATIC

Former Speaker Makes Bellicose Remarks in the House

"Go into Mexico and establish law and order there," was the fervent plea of Uncle Joe Cannon in the House yesterday as he declared that the United States is already at war with Mexico and should stop talking of a "crisis" and an emergency.

"We are at war, let us call it that. Let Congress take action to clean up that country and establish a government there," shouted the former speaker. "Our young men, our best blood, are going in there not properly armed to meet bandits lying in ambush to shoot our boys."

When Representative Garner, a Texas Democrat, asked if Uncle Joe approved the action already taken, Cannon said:

"If you mean that I approve of the policy of the Wilson administration in handling Mexico—no, God forbid! That policy has been dilly-dally, wishy washy hogwash. Do you approve of that policy?"

Garner smiled but did not answer.

"What I mean," continued Cannon, "is that it is absolutely patent that since the rule of Huerta, which was broken up after a year by a copartnership between the President of the United States, Villa and Carranza, things have been going from bad to worse in Mexico. That partnership was dissolved after due deliberation, and Villa was leclared an unworthy bandit and Carranza declared a worthy bandit and recognized in the fullness of time. Conditions have been worse from that day.

"For the benefit of the people of the United States, for the sake of civilization, for the peace of the terrorized people of Mexico, we ought to go into Mexico and establish a military government there. You cannot keep feeding these people words and soothing syrup. We must establish a government of force and that government must continue until Mexico herself can establish a government."

Otis Mumpower, 21 years old, was instantly killed, while his father William Mumpower had his legs badly scalded in a wreck on the Black Mountain Railway, near Pensacola, N. C., yesterday, due to a runaway car plunging down the mountain grade into an engine on which the father and son were making a trip over the lumber road. Young Mumpower leaves a wife and one child.

GERMAN DRIVES ARE CHECKED

Spirited Battle Rages About Thiaumont Region at Present

REPULSE AUSTRIANS

Berlin Claims Russians Have Been Repulsed at Various Points by Central Powers

Paris, June 29—German troops Tuesday night delivered another attack on the French positions near Fleury, on the sector of the Verdun front over which violent fighting has been in progress for several days. The assault was checked by the French fire, the War Office announced.

There was spirited fighting near the Thiaumount work, which the Germans captured several days ago, but no change took place in the situation here.

West of the Meuse there was no infantry fighting of importance. Artillery engagements occurred in the sector between Avocourt and Chattancourt.

London, June 29—The War Office communication issued last night says:

"During last night there were raids and patrols entered enemy trenches at several points, bombing the enemy and inflicting casualties. Near Angres one of our raiding parties found the enemy trenches badly damaged by shell fire. The enemy apparently had suffered from gas we had successfully discharged from our trenches. A particularly successful raid was carried out by the Highland Light Infantry near the Vermelles-La Bassee road, when 46 prisoners and two trench mortars were captured and two enemy mine shafts were destroyed, with the loss of only two men.

"Yesterday the enemy exploded a small mine near Neuve Chapelle and another near Hulluch, but excepting slight damage to one of our saps, they achieved no other result, We successfully exploded two mines southward of the Bethune-Labassee Canal. Bad weather yesterday prevented much flying."

Berlin, June 29—Attacks in small forces, made at various points on the Franco-British front in the last 24 hours, were repulsed by the Germans, the War Office announced yesterday In the Verdun sector the French made a determined assault, but their attacks broke down under the German fire.

London, June 29.—Successes for the Austrians against the Russians near Luty, in Bukowina, and by the Germans over the Russians in Volynia, are recorded in the Austrian official communication received here last night.

Rome, June 29.—The Italians have flung back the Austrians a further distance on the Trentino front. The War Office yesterday announced the capture of Monte Giamondo, north of Fusine and Monte Caviojo. These positions lie between Posina and Astico.

The Italians also advanced on the Asiago Plateau, occupying the southern side of the Assa Valley, and reached the slopes of Monte Rasta, Monte Interrotto and Monte Mosciagh. Monte Colombara was carried and the Italian advance reached the Galamarra Valley.

Berlin, June 29—The great battle in Volhynia, where the reinforced German army has succeeded in checking the Russian advance, has resulted in further reverses for the Russians. Announcement was made by the War Office yesterday that the Germans have captured the village of Winiewka, west of Sokul and Russian positions south of that point.

CARDINALS TO PLAY MARINES

Also to Stage Series In July With Amateur Teams in Vicinity

U. S. Marine Corps' baseball team of the Interdepartmental League of Washington, will journey to this city next Sunday afternoon to play the fast Cardinal Athletic Club nine at 2:30 p. m. The "Fighting Sons of Uncle Sam" are anxious to win from the Cardinals and Manager Bayliss will put his best men in the game, but the Cardinals are going to use their best efforts to force the cup of defeat upon the "soldiers of the sea."

Manager Crump, of the Cardinals, will use the same lineup as announced for last Sunday's game with the Rex Athletic Club, which had to be called off on account of wet grounds. Eddie Thompson, crack pitcher of the Cardinal team last season, who has been staying in Pittsburgh, Pa., is expected to arrive in this city in time to twirl against the marines.

The championship series for the baseball honors of northern Virginia will be staged early in July, between the Cardinals, the Clarendon Athletic Club, the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and the Alexandria White Sox the last three teams of this city and the first nine representing Alexandria county.

A GERMAN FORECAST

Dream That Japan, and Spain and Latin-America Are Against United States

Berlin, June 29—The nature of Gen. Venustiano Carranza's reply to President Wilson's ultimatum depends upon the outcome of secret negotiations now under way between Mexico, Japan and Germany, in Tokio and Berlin.

War or peace between the United States and Mexico, in other words, will be decided on the question: Will Germany accept Japan's offered hand for an alignment with Mexico, the whole of Latin America and Spain, against the United States?

If she does, Carranza's reply to Washington's demand to release the American prisoners will be a flat-flooted denial, a challenge to "take them if you can." War between the two countries will follow, Japan will seize the earliest possible opportunity to provoke a dispute with the United States, subsequently sever the already loosened bonds tieing her to Great Britain, and the entente in general and the European war will be transformed into a real world war.

The information upon which the above statements are based comes from a Latin-American diplomat who avers he is absolutely certain of his facts, having been present at unofficial and informal conferences at which they were discussed. It was given to the Sun News Service correspondent upon the condition that the informant's name be withheld.

FOURTH VIRGINIA MAY PARTICIPATE

War Department Likely to Yield to Regiment's Clamor

WANT STATE BRIGADE

Movement on Foot to Form a Troop of Rough Riders in Albemarle County, Virginia

Washington, June 29—The Fourth Virginia Regiment, a crack infantry organization, whose threats to quit were "left at home" have stirred the Old Dominion, will now likely be called to the colors and ordered to the Mexican border. Unofficial assurance to this effect was received yesterday by Adjut.-Gen. W. W. Sale of Virginia from Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood commander of the Department of the East. Almost the same assurance was given Senator Martin, of Virginia, at the War Department yesterday.

Members of the Virginia Congressional delegation, headed by Senator Martin, have been making desperate efforts for 10 days to have the Fourth Regiment included in the call. Hardly has a day passed since the President issued his call to the National Guardsmen but one or more of the Virginia Congressmen have been at the War Department, seeking to have the President's orders amended so that the Fourth Regiment could join the First and Second Regiments and go to the front. Today for the first time there came some assurance that the Fourth may have its wishes granted and get the call to the colors.

If the Fourth is called out, Virginia will send a brigade to the Mexican border. This will mean that the Virginia troops will not be under the immediate command of an alien brigadier general, as it is stated that Brig. Gen. C. C. Vaughn is also likely to be placed in command of the Virginia brigade.

Adjutant-General Sale yesterday sent out orders to all companies in the Fourth Virginia to recruit to war strength. Many members of the Fourth, when they were advised of being left at home, served notice that they would quit the National Guard. The attitude of the men caused Senator Martin and other members of Congress from the Old Dominion to make redoubled efforts to have them included in the call.

Col. W. H. Langhorne, a member of the famous Langhorne family of Virginia and an uncle of the noted Langhorne giris, one of whom married William Waldorf Astor, Jr., of London, yesterday took steps looking to the organization of a troop of cavalry to be known as the Albermarle Rough Riders. The cavalry will be part of the Virginia National Guard. Colonel Langhorne, through Senator Martin, asked permission of the War Department to form the cavalry troop. Secretary Baker told the Senator that no such permission could be granted unless volunteers were called for. Colonel Langhorne and his Albermarle friends, however, did not care to wait for a call for volunteers, so Senator Martin advised the Colonel to go to Richmond and ask Governor Stuart and Adjutant General Sale for authority to recruit the cavalry troop as a unit in the Virginia militia.

Clifton Mickens, a negro, 21 years old, today was found guilty by a jury in the Corporation Court at Roanoke, of murdering Patrolman J. Harvey Leverett, of the police force, and was sentenced by the court to die in the electric chair on August 25. Mickens killed Patrolman Leverett on the morning of June 21, when the latter went to the negro's home to arrest him on the charge of theft of a shirtwaist. Evidence brought out at the trial showed that Mickens attacked the policeman and that during a scuffle which followed, the officer was shot through the abdomen, dying almost instanly.

ELEVEN MORE RECRUITS

Officers and Privates of the Alexandria Light Infantry Now Number One Hundred

Besides the four men, a corporal and three privates, left in this city with him as recruiting assistants, Second Lieutenant F. Clinton Knight took away to Richmond with him last night eleven additional recruits who had enlisted Tuesday and Wednesday, after the departure of the Alexandria Light Infantry for the state mobilization encampment at Richmond. Together with the seventeen who enlisted shortly before the company's departure on Tuesday brings the total strength of the company up to more than one hundred men and officers.

A number of the members of the company who left for Richmond Tuesday were in the city yesterday closing up business affairs and other matters and have now returned to Richmond. A number of members under twenty-one years of age were in the city having special papers signed by parents.

Physical examination of the local company is being held today.

The deed transferring the armory from the Light Infantry to the city of Alexandria has been placed on record with the clerks of courts, signed by about ninety of the local militiamen.

LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT

Billy Sunday Hymnal to be Used at Revival Meetings in the Fall

It has been officially announced by the general committee of laymen of the various churches of the city which are preparing to have a grand series of evangelistic meetings in this city in the fall, the services of Gypsy Smith, the famous evangelist, having been secured as the leader, that the hymnbook which will be used for the musical part of the meeting will be the "Billy" Sunday hymnal, or the one compiled by Redeheaver, Sunday's musical director.

A shipment of these hymnals has arrived here, so that training of the choir that will furnish the musical element of the October religious rally can commence at an early date. Each church that is taking part in the preparations for this rally will have a large delegation of singers in this choir, including its regular church choir and other singers for the occasion. The total number of voices in the choir that will sing at the meetings is expected to be 600. George B. Kennedy is chairman of the music committee.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

Small Number of Cases on the Docket Which Will Be Disposed of at The July Term

The United States District Court, for the eastern district of Virginia Judge Edmund Waddill, jr., presiding will convene in this city at 11 a. m., Monday, July 3, for July term. A grand and a petit jury will consider the cases on the docket, the number of which, however, is very small, and it is therefore expected that the court will hold only a very brief session, lasting not more than a few days. The court will adjourn over Independence Day.

Among the cases set for trial are eight criminal, five naturalization, and one contested case, the latter being an injunction of the Old Dominion Railway against Foote, et als., in consequence of the recent strike of the trainmen of that railway.

Panels for the petit and the grand jury will be announced shortly. Marshall Schoeni has served but few summons as yet.

AFTER ARMOR PLANT

Another Meeting of City Officials and Business Men to be Held

Another meeting of the joint committee, composed of members appointed to represent the city council the Chamber of Commerce, and the Retail Merchants' Association, to confer upon the securing for Alexandria of the proposed government armor plant, will be held this afternoon at four o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. It is expected that the "scouting committee," the sub committee of five appointed at the meeting of the main committee last Monday, will report. A further discussion of the subject will also be gone into. The sub committee is composed of the Mayor, Alderman C. J. W. Summers, Councilman C. S. T. Burke, W. A. Smoot, Jr., of the Chamber of Commerce, and Kenneth W. Ogden, of the Retail Merchants' Association.

TENTH ANNUAL RECITAL.

Music Pupils of Mrs. Julia V. Nalls Presented at Elks Auditorium Last Night.

One of the most interesting musical events given in this city recently was the tenth annual recital of the music class of Mrs. Julia V. Nalls which was given yesterday evening in the Elks' auditorium, and which, notwithstanding the heat, was a huge success in every particular. The pupils, although appearing for the first time before a critical audience, proved equal to the occasion and rendered their respective selections in a pleasing manner.

The program of the recital was opened by a charcteristic speech by J. Fred Birrell, delegate to the state legislature from this city.

At the close of the recital a loving cup was presented Mrs. Nalls by her pupils and medals were presented to the following pupils by Mr. Birrell: Misses Rose Wilkins, Edna Gorres, Ruth Bragg, Doris Bruin, Ruth Bruin, Anna Moore, Irene Bailey, Nero Lanum, Rosalie Fuller, Marjorie Smith, Vera Simpson, and Isabel Nobel.

'SANCTUARY QUESTION'

Large Numbers Still Attend Tent Meetings on North Washington Street

"The Sanctuary Question" was the subject considered last night by Evangelist Gibson at the meeting in the tent on Washington street, near Cameron. Although the weather was warm, a large congregation was present.

The speaker with his charts and the Bible delivered an interesting address. Among other things he said: "The Prophet Moses was instructed by God to make Him a sanctuary, that He might dwell among His people. At all times throughout the Christian dispensation God's people have desired a place of worship, and these places have been provided by the erection of churches, chapels and private houses, and also in the open air and in tents do we find people assembling for the worship of God. The Lord told Moses that he was to make the tabernacle and all its furnishings after the pattern which was shown him in the mount. The Apostle Paul has said that the earthly sanctuary was patterned after the heavenly. Then there must be a sanctuary in the heaven above, where God dwells, after which the earthly was patterned. The earthly sanctuary had two apartments, the first the holy. In the holy place, or the first apartment, where three articles of furniture—the golden candlestick, table of show bread, and the altar of incense. In the most holy place was one article of furniture known as the ark of His testament, which contained the Ten Commandements, or the Law of God. Therefore the heavenly sanctuary has two apartments and has the different articles of furniture."

Tonight the subject will be "The Way of Salvation." All are cordially invited to these meetings.

Robert S. Barrett has left for a trip of a few days to New York City, Asbury Park, and Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger B. Adams, of Rosemont, have returned from Toronto, where Mr. Adams was a delegate to the Train Dispatchers' Convention. Mr. and Mrs. Adams visited Niagara Falls and Atlnatic City while enroute to and from Toronto.

Joseph Jackson, of Goshen, drank poison in Philadelphia, last night. He was seen staggering along the street by policemen and the took him to a drug store, where an antidote was administered. He was then taken to the Hahnemann Hospital, where physicians said the antidote had probably saved his life. He is said to have attempted suicide while despondent.

PASSING OF THE WAR CLOUD

During the past week or ten days while this country has been manifesting such feverish excitement in perfecting arrangements for meeting eventualities in the issue with Mexico, the Gazette has suggested that actual hostilities might not follow. Dispatches from various sources have been published during the past forty eight hours which strengthened our impression, and yesterday there were still brighter omens upon the lines of peace.

Conditions today prove conclusively that the good sense of the Mexican people is still upon the throne, and that the better class, at least, of our southern neighbors will avoid a clash if possible. The de facto government of Mexico has signified its willingness to meet the demands of the United States in reference to the release of prisoners, and it is believed the other matters in the issue can be settled without recourse to the sword.

A large percentage of the people of Mexico are pacific in their nature. They cannot always bridle the hot heads who ever and anon compose de facto governments and which change as often as the seasons. Their all is in the land of the Montezumas, and their lives and their possessions are at stake. The large percentage which owns merely what is upon their backs, having nothing to lose, are not true representative Americans, nor are certain disorderly elements in the United States true types of the people of this country.

Conditions today are calculated to relieve the tension which has recently existed, and the fathers and mothers of the many young men now en route for Mexico are breathing freer, realizing, as they do, that while their loved ones have shown their patriotism by marching forth at their country's call, their services for the time being may not be needed upon the field of battle for the present, at least.

RUMANIA'S OPPORTUNITY

With Russia's troops completely successful in Bukowina and swooping down into Hungary through the passes of the Carpathian Mountains the attitude of Rumania is likely to become a live issue of the very near future. While the sympathies of the Rumanian people are generally supposed to be with the entente allies self-interest has hitherto kept them neutral in the contest. As is suggested by a contemporary, a small nation cannot be blamed for such a course, with the fates of Belgium Servia and Montenegro ever before her eyes.

It is reasonable, however, to suppose that Rumanians have watched with growing indignation the efforts of Bulgaria, aided by the Central Powers, to make herself the dominating influence in the Balkans by robbing Servia of a large portion of her territory. This, if made permanent, would destroy the balance of power maintained until two years ago among Rumania, Bulgaria, Greece and Servia. So long, however, as Austria kept control of Bukowina, which adjoins Rumania to the north and west she was in a position to outflank the latter country if it showed its teeth to Bulgaria. This menace has now been largely removed by Russia's victories, and if Rumania really intends to take a hand in the fight her hour for striking would seem to have come. Bulgaria is almost helpless, because the great bulk of her troops are now facing the allies at Saloniki.

This all seems very cold-blooded, but it far less so than Austria"s attack on Servia and Germany's invasion of Belgium. Nobody can claim that anything except the most ignoble motives actuated the Central Powers in their movements. When one is searching for the highest forms of altruistic benevolence it is foolish to waste much time on the Balkan nations.

DANGEROUS TOY PISTOL.

A warning against blank cartridge wounds on the Fourth of July was issued yesterday by the Public Health Service of the District of Columbia. Firearms and fire-crackers are dangerous, the warning states, but it is the blank cartridge that is most liable to carry, along with its wadding, the tetanus bacilli into the human body.

This warning is published a few days prior to every Fourth of July, and authorities in nearly all cities in the country have endeavored to suppress the toy or saluting pistol on the recurrence of independence Day. But notwithstanding laws the average number of cases of lockjaw occur annually from the deadly toy pistol.

As has often been stated in the Gazette, it is unlawful to sell these dangerous toys in Alexandria, yet they are displayed openly in shops as the Fourth of July and Christmas approach.

A GENERAL OFFENSIVE

(Baltimore American).

In the last interview between Von Jagow and the British ambassador the former assumed the role of an unconscious prophet and predicted the plight in which his country is at the present placed. In justification of the determined purpose of his country to force its way through Belgium the German minister pointed out that it was a matter of life and death for his country to come to quick conclusions with France before Russia had time to bring into action its innumerable hosts. Passing over the sequence of bailure of the German war-strategy and coming to the consequence of these failures, Russia is today playing the role Von Jagow conceived to be a matter of critical importance for his country.

The Allies, after gaining their second wind, are battering away at Germany, which has never had time to rest from the constant and deadly labor of battling with foes superior in numbers and in resources. All but the initial preparation was theirs and they are now using their developed resources with deadly effect.

When the Russians were thrown back from the Carpathians, when they were thrown out of East Prussia and Galicia, when Poland was freed of their presence, when they were grimly looking at the Teutons making rapid progress in the direction of St. Petersburg itself, the Germans declared that Russia was eliminated and would not be able to come back before the Germans had crushed the French upon the west side. These optimistic assurances were not based upon the more sober perception of the illimitable possibilities of Russia as expressed by Von Jagow. They did not take into account the fact that the Japanese nation was transpiring into a hive of workers to equip the Russians to come back with the latest and deadliest type of munitions of war and in unlimited quantities.

Nor did these confident expression take sufficient account of the fact that the French are fighting for their soil and upon their soil to drive out invaders to whom they had given not the least war provocation. The indomitable determination of the British is attracting the attention of the world.

Russia is manifesting well nigh invincibility, with Bukowina conquered and with Lemberg in the immediate prospect and even Budapest within valculable subjugation. Is even Vienna remote from the Russian advance? Greece has been forced to its knees and the force at Saloniki can at any time carry the day with the Bulgarians and can coerce the Rumanians into war association with the cause of the Allies. On the west side the activity of the British combined with the continued stern resistance and occasional successes of the French forbid the thought that Germany has anything to gain in that theater. Challenged down on all sides, the Germans have before them the most critical stress of the entire war, and with their forces decimated and their wealth dissipated and with their home populations in a condition of suffering though the blockade and in a spirit of deep unrest.

At the time of the peace conference at Portsmouth, N. H where conclusion of the war between Russia and Japan was brought about the Russians offered through Count Witte terms to Japan that did not include an indemnity. To the surprise of the Russians the Japanese commissioners snapped them up. So close to defeat was Japan in the hour of victory that it could scarcely have carried the war another month. So with Germany. A peace conference at the present time, that offered terms at all compatible with the dignity of the German nation, would be snapped up.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Four persons were killed and five wounded by the police during a food riot at Galatz, Roumania, on Monday,

Admiral Winslow reported late yesterday that his fleet had made a complete survey of the Mexican west coast and had found no trace of Japanese warships, whose presence there had been rumored.

Clarence H. Walker, 25, employed in the Bureau of Standards of the Daptrement of Commerce in Washington was drowned and Dr. Harold S. Stimson, was barely rescued last night when their canoe capsized near Chain Bridge.

The American consulate at Nogales, Sonora, across the border from Nogales, Ariz., was looted by Carranza soldiers yesterday and the shield torn down. United States Government property was confiscated by the looters.

The Tageblatt, one of the leading Berlin newspapers, announced yesterday morning that its appearance had been prohibited by order of the military commander. This is the first instance for some months of the suspension of a Berlin paper.

Four of the five remaining Villista bandits captured in the Columbus raid and sentenced to hang were taken from the penitentiary at Santa Fe, N. M., yesterday and are now on their way to Deming, where they will be hanged early on Friday on tne same scaffold used for their two fellow-raiders on June .

The owners of the Spanish steamer Comercio, which recently arrived at Alicante from Cette, reported to the foreign office that the steamer had been stopped at sea by a submarine flying the Austrian colors. The captain of the Comercio was compelled to give full particulars of all the ships which were in the harbor at Cete a he ime he sailed.

A wild early morning dash in a high-powered, stripped automobile, resulted fatally for two men Tuesday in Philadelphia and two others are believed to be dying. The car skidded into an iron pole. The dead men were Robert M. McClellan, 35, and Albert A. Norton, 23, William J. Sloss, 23, and Arthur Simmons, 33, are in the Polyclinic Hospital suffering from injuries which are expected to cause their deaths.

Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the German socialist leader, was sentenced yesterday in Berlin, to 30 months' penal servitude and dismissal from the army for attempted high treason, gross insubordination and resistance to the authorities. The court decided that Dr. Liebknecht was guided by political fantics, and not by unpatriotic feeling, and therefore imposed the lowest penalty on him. Dr. Liebknecht is entitled to appeal from the sentence.

The following cablegram from Panama has been received by the editor of the New York Herald: "We ask the American people be urged that commissioners may be sent to Panama to investigate the political situation here to the end that the world may know the truth of what has occurred and is now occuring in this wretched country under the iniquitous regime of an irresponsible dictatorship. We beg an answer to this."

A Zurich dispatch says that Germany's demands on Switzerland for the exchange of commodities are in the form of an ultimatum which expires at 6 o'clock tomorrow night. Announcement was made in the Swiss parliament last week that Germany had demanded that the Swiss government permit the exportation of cotton and food-stuffs collected by German agents, stating that if the demand were no complyied with Germany would prohibit exportation of coal, iron and other materials essential for Swiss industries. The Swiss authorities asked for time to reply and sent a delegation to Paris to confer with representatives of the entente allies.

Ethel and Tenny Fudge, 13 and nine years old, sisters, were found dead in a house on the outskirts of Pensacola, Fla., Thursday night. Each had been shot through the heart with a small rifle, and, according to the police, a note near the bodies said they had decided to kill themselves rather than go to an orphans' home. Another note told their father good-by, and a third note said he was not to blame. After an investigation, the coroner had the father, E. G. Fudge, arrested pending developments. Fudge asserted he was in town seeking work when the children met death. The children's mother is said to be dead.

Federal Inquiry or Railroad Strike?

Faced by demands from the conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen that would impose on the country an additional burden in transportation costs of $100,000,000 a year, the railroads propose that this wage problem be settled by reference to an impartial Federal tribunal.

With these employes, whose efficient service is acknowledged, the railroads have no differences that could not be considered fairly and decided justly by such a public body.

Railroads Urge Public Inquiry and Arbitration

The formal proposal of the railroads to the employes for the settlement of the controversy is as follows:

"Our conferences have demonstrated that we cannot harmonize our differences of opinion, and that eventually the matters in controversy must be passed upon by other and disinterested agencies. Therefore, we propose that your proposals and the proposition of the railways be disposed of by one or the other of the following methods:

1. Preferably by submission to the Interstate Commerce Commission, the only tribunal which, by reason of its accumulated information bearing on railway conditions and its control of the revenue of the railways, is in a position to consider and protect the rights and equities of all the interests affected, and to provide additional revenue necessary to meet the added cost of operation in case your proposals are found by the Commission to be just and reasonable; or, in the event the Interstate Commerce Commission cannot, under existing laws, act in the premises, that we jointly request Congress to take such action as may be necessary to enable the Commission to consider and promptly dispose of the questions involved: or

2. By arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Federal law" (The Newlands Act).

Leaders Refuse Offer and Take Strike Vote

Leaders of the train service brotherhoods, at the joint conference held in New York, June 1-15, refused the offer of the railroads to submit the issue to arbitration or Federal review, and the employes are now voting on the question whether authority shall be given these leaders to declare a nation-wide strike.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is proposed by the railroads as the public body to which this issue ought to be referred for these reasons:

No other body with such an intimate knowledge of railroad conditions has such an unquestioned position in the public confidence.

The rates the railroads may charge the public for transportation are now largely fixed by this Government board.

Out of every dollar received by the railroads from the public nearly one-half is paid directly to the employes as wages; and the money to pay increased wages can come from no other source than the rates paid by the public.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, with its control over rates, is in a position to make a complete investigation and render such decision as would protect the interests of the railroad employes, the owners of the railroads, and the public.

A Question For the Public to Decide

The railroads feel that they have no right to grant a wage preferment of $100,000,000 a year to these employes, now highly paid and constituting only one-fifth of all the employes, without a clear mandate from a public tribunal that shall determine the merits of the case after a review of all the facts.

The single issue before the country is whether this controversy is to be settled by an impartial Government inquiry or by industrial warfare.

PLENTY OF MUNITIONS

Factories of Allies Said to be in Full Swing

Gabriel Hanotaux, former Minister of Foreign Relations of France says:

The allies' production of munitions is at last in full swing. The French output surpasses all expectations. The British are going ahead without a bitch, while one of my friends who has returned from Petrograd tells me that the Pontiloff factories give the impression of being ten times bigger than the Creusot works. This production goes on simultaneously so that an iron torrent may deluge the besieged central empires. The Russian battle has scarcely begun. Italy is reaping the reward of her energetic resistance and Cadorna's magnificent strategy. She knows that Austria has no more reserves to feed the Trentino front.

In Macedonia, Bulgaria is now thrown on her own resources. The allies' army is in perfect condition and will play its role in the Balkan peninsula, which Austria has abandoned, perhaps forever.

While the foregoing is the European battle scheme, Verdun remains the greatest of all combats. The civilization of the future will be decided there. We must hold on at all costs. Five great battles are now under way. Verdun—which was the first of the series—must render victorious the other four.

The Virginia State Aerie of Eagles convened in its eleventh annual sessions yesterday in the home of Petersburg Loyal Order of Moose, with about 200 delegates in attendance from various sections of the State. The opening exercises were launched by District Deputy Robert Gilliam, jr., of Petersburg. He introduced Mayor Robert Cabaniss, who welcomed the visitors. The Mayor's address was responded to by Past President R. I. Davis, of Portsmouth. Today the State officers will be elected and the next place of meeting decided upon. In the afternoon the visiting delegates will be given an old Virginia barbecue at the fair grounds.

Rebuilding Sale

NOW IN PROGRESS

Our entire 8th st. building has been torn down and in its stead a New 6 Story Steel Structure will be built. All the departments that were located there in have been moved to the front store. New Merchandise is coming in every day and we have no room for it consequently.

EXTRAORDINARY VALUES are being offered in every department throughout our establishment.

It will pay you to come from any distance to take advantage of the wonderful opportunities that are being offered.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION.

"Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Wonders for Me"

"I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble for a number of years and although I have used a great number of remedies recommended for the complaint, Chamberlain's Tablets are the first medicine that has given me positive and lasting relief," writes Mrs. Anna Kadin, Spencerport, N. Y., "Chamberlain's Tablets have done wonders for me and I value them very highly." Obtainable everywhere.

WHOOPING COUGH

One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, S. W. Clinton, Blandon Springs, Ala., writes "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have and I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well. Obtainable everywhere.
